

CONTENTS

The translators	viii
Acknowledgements	ix
Transliteration	x
Preface	xi

Introduction	1
--------------	---

THE POEMS

The invocation of Hū	91
Saying Hū	92
Oh He and You who is He ( Yā Hū wa yā man Hū )	93
Good news arrived the month he was born	95
You must love	97
The way of the Friend	98
The call to friends	99
The nightingale's lament	101
The nightingale's praise	109
May tidings come	110
Let us love the Real God	111
May God grant us guidance	112
May God grant right direction	114
May He grant us the grace of His Beauty	116

Contents

Let us apply ourselves this day	118
From my origin was I separated	120
Free yourself of saying “I”	121
Shall I ever find the One?	122
Will I reach the light?	123
Tell me, where is the way to the country of the Friend?	124
Guide us to the country of the Friend	126
Give me tidings of the Friend	128
The only remedy for separation	130
The fasting moon has returned	132
We have reached the fasting moon	134
The value of fasting	135
The fasting moon has gone again	136
May we one day be His	138
One with the One	140
One drop	141
In my rose garden	142
Cure this pain	144
The secret hidden within	145
Come close	146
Even closer	147
Let me hear Your Beautiful Name	148
Do not drive us away from Your door	150
Come closer	152
What ails you?	156

Contents

Surrender your spirit	159
The one who knows his origin	160
Through Your invocation	161
There is no other remedy	162
The remedy for my affliction	163
Surrender to invocation	164
Come let us invoke the Real	165
Let us invoke the Real on this day	167
Let Your lovers see	168
If you yearn	170
An incurable pain	171
No other wish	173
Let me ...	174
The state of the dervish	175
Notes to the poems	176
Bibliography	179